Mayor Rusty Bailey to Join Nation's Mayors to Recognize National Service

Fourth annual Mayors Day of Recognition for National Service will take place Tuesday

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – Mayor Rusty Bailey will join nearly 3,000 city and county leaders across America on Tuesday (4/5) in recognizing the efforts and impact of volunteer service organizations such as AmeriCorps and Senior Corps in our cities.

Mayor Bailey will host a reception on the Grier Pavilion at Riverside City Hall, 3900 Main Street, at 5:00 p.m. to celebrate the work and dedication of more than 100 AmeriCorps, National Civilian Community Corps, Senior Corps, and Energy Corps volunteers that serve throughout the City of Riverside.

“Our volunteers are crucial to making Riverside the caring and supportive place that it is,” Mayor Bailey said. “They work hard to tackle some of the most pressing challenges our communities face.”

National Service volunteers in Riverside serve in a myriad of capacities, ranging from providing tutoring and mentoring for disadvantaged youth to making renewable energy technology and job training accessible to underserved communities.

This will be the fourth year Mayor Bailey has participated in this event. During the first Mayors Day of Recognition in 2013, 832 mayors highlighted achievements by National Service volunteers at public events.
